What do we warranty.

Our products reflect our company’s beliefs. It’s a way how we can communicate with the user, and we believe in achieving the ultimate product, which is functional and yet beautiful in design.

The highest compliment is a referral, and we strive to make sure that every meticulously produced product complies with the international standards and is tested before it leaves our facilities. This is why we comfortably guarantee our products for up to ten years.

To further reassure our products we work closely with SGS the internationally renowned inspection agency, reducing risks in international export and eliminating any doubt a new client may have.
